The attached order of battle of Hungarian infantry units down to battalion level.

Only ordinary infantry units, motorized or not (green shoulder 25X1 and collar patches), are listed, with the exception of the following:
Border guards, infantry units of mechanized divisions, and infantry troops of the political police units.

The location of inaccessible units was compiled from various information of undetermined value but which has been cross-checked.

Only the division at Nagykanizsa is completely inaccessible [unavailable?]
[unconfirmed?].

(B)

We have identified and noticed the presence of an 85 [mi anti-aircraft defense unit (probably an artillery battalion) in the new military post located on Szurdok utca, a small street running at an angle from Budaorsi utca and Beregszasz utca in the 11th district of Budapest.

A new observation of the whole ^{installation} ~~objective~~ makes it possible to state positively that there are two different military ^{installations} ~~objectives~~ in this area:

^{Installation} ~~Objective~~ "A" (as noted on attached diagram) ^{is} in the north section and seems to contain housing for the above anti-aircraft unit.

^{Installation} ~~Objective~~ "B" is in the south area. Various buildings, which could serve as an observation or signal school, were seen. A red shield with an anti-aircraft insignia could also be seen. However, in the southeast corner of the area, two small observation planes of the Piper Cub type are located permanently, which could mean the presence of an observer or signal unit or school.

The whole ^{installation} ~~objective~~ is bounded by Budaorsi utca and, in a southerly direction, by a small tarred road for some 100 meters.

Comment:

The above ^{installation} ~~objective~~ is completely separated from the barracks at No 49 Budaorsi utca, as seen from the attached diagram. The latter ^{installation} ~~objective~~ has been noted to be probably a communications barracks or a school for signals non-commissioned officers, and houses both.
